

SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF NAPA

Plaintiff,
VS.

Defendant

Case No.:

Declaration Re: Notice for Ex Parte Hearing
Family Code § 241, 6300
California Rule of Court 379

Notice of an ex parte application must be given by 10:00 a.m. of the preceding day unless there are exceptional circumstances.

No. 1. Choose the box that applies and use the space provided to explain:

I have not given notice of this ex parte appointment to the opposing party because of the following exceptional circumstances:

I attempted to give notice of this ex parte appointment to the opposing party by (enter how, when, and where each attempt was made):

I gave notice of this ex parte appointment to the opposing party by:

No. 2. If you gave notice, is opposition expected? Yes. No. Unknown.
If you spoke with the opposing party, what was their response?

No. 3. If there are other related cases, please list the case numbers (if you don't have the case numbers, please list the party names and approximate date of filing):

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.

Executed in Napa County, State of California.

Date:

(SIGNATURE OF DECLARANT)